

Contents

- 1. Legend, tradition and folklore 1
Enborne's Robin Hood; legends from the battlefield of 1643 – the witch, some ghosts and the burial mounds; riding Enborne's black ram
- 2. The first battle of Newbury, 1643 7
The advance on Newbury; 20 September 1643; aftermath; remains and remembrance; the Falkland memorial
- 3. The landscape south and west of Newbury 17
Enborne's manors; Enborne surveyed, 1775; 1815: Lord Craven's enclosure of Enborne; who owned what in Victorian Enborne; Wash Common; the origins of the name Enborne as a river and a village; some obsolete place names
- 4. Farms and families 29
Boame's Farm; Bourne Farm; Church Farm; Crockham Heath Farm; Enborne Gate Farm; Enborne Street Farm; Falkland Farm; Foxgrove; Hill Farm; King's Farm; Skinner's Green Farm; Vanner's Farm; Warren Farm; Wash Common Farm; Wheatland's Farm
- 5. Any other business 43
Malting; milling; brickmaking; blacksmithing; pubs and beer houses; nurseries and market gardens; village shops
- 6. Gentry and their houses 51
Cope Hall; Enborne Grange; Enborne Lodge; Enborne House; Newbury House; Park House; Warren Lodge; Badsworth House; The Laurels later Falkland Lodge; Gorselands; The Hermitage later Glendale Lodge; Battledene
- 7. Rectors of St Michael's 61
Brookes the controversialist; seventeenth-century religious changes; eighteenth-century Austen connections; the Johnson dynasty; recent rectors
- 8. The canal, railway and roads 71
The Kennet and Avon Canal; Great Western and Didcot to Southampton railways; roads, turnpikes and traffic

9. Poverty, punishment and staying alive	77
Parochial poor relief; the Swing Riots; transportation; healthcare and mortality
10. Schooling	83
Schools for young gentlemen at Enborne rectory; village schools; Enborne Church of England Primary School; Enborne Lodge School; schools in Wash Common
11. Churches and chapels	95
St Michael's Church, Enborne; St Luke's and St George's Churches, Wash Common; Roman Catholicism; Nonconformism
12. Fun and games on the common	105
The ancient heathland; horse-racing in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries; the recreation ground; Falkland Cricket Club; Falkland Football Club
13. The last century	111
The Isolation Hospital; Wash Common 1900 - 1939; the Second World War; the ROC post; Wash Common's post-war development; the Enborne Valley reservoir project; twentieth-century Enborne; Enborne Row and Wash Water; Enborne Hedges; the Newbury bypass
Sources	127
Index	131